New Book by our National Director

Craig Scribner

Step into the world of Lola, the Dancing Flamingo. This children's book, written by our National Director, Craig Scribner will have your little ones tapping their toes and giggling with delight! Join Lola, the spunky and determined flamingo, on a hilarious journey of perseverance and encouragement as she discovers her hidden talent for tap dancing. With colorful illustrations that bring Lola and her friends to life, this whimsical tale will have kids spreading their wings and embracing their own unique abilities. Prepare for a flurry of laughter, a whirlwind of twirling feathers, and a whole lot of "flamingo fabulousness!" Get ready to witness Lola's toe-tapping triumph and be inspired to chase your dreams, one dance step at a time. So gather your little dancers, put on your dancing shoes, and let Lola's infectious spirit lift you up, because in this tale, miracles happen when flamingos fly...I mean, tap dance!
